

Designation

Craig Knott, president of Houseworks Unlimited, Mount Airy, has earned the Certified Remodeler designation from the National Association of the Remodeling Industry.

The designation required a minimum of five years in the industry, a 15-page qualification matrix and notarized affidavit concerning his record of experience, competency and commitment to his community.

He also participated in a study group for 10 weeks prior to passing a full-day written examination.

Mr. Knott is one of less

Knott

than 30 remodeling contractors in the state to achieve the designation.

Frederick News-Post

We've Got Frederick

Written All Over Us!

Business owner gets certification as remodeler

Craig Knott, president of Houseworks Unlimited, a Mount Airy remodeling company, has earned certified remodeler status from the National Association of the Remodeling Industry.

To earn the designation, Knott had to have a minimum of five years in the business and submit materials about his qualifications.

He also participated in a 10-week study group before taking a final examination.

Houseworks Unlimited offers a computerized business providing a remodeling services from entire home renovations to additions.